

Gift Aid Declaration

Please treat as Gift Aid donations all qualifying gifts of money made by me to The Circle Works (please tick all that apply)

today in the past 4 years in future

I confirm I have paid or will pay an amount of Income Tax and/or Capital Gains Tax for each tax year (6 April to 5 April) that is at least equal to the amount of tax that all the charities or Community Amateur Sports Clubs that I donate to will reclaim on my gifts for that tax year. I understand that other taxes such as VAT and Council Tax do not qualify. I understand the charity will reclaim 28p of tax on every £1 that I gave up to 5 April 2008, and will reclaim 25p of tax on every £1 that I give on or after 6 April 2008.

I will donate £_____ per month/quarter/year (delete as necessary) to The Circle Works, beginning on _____

The Circle Works

Registered Charity No 1098873
Company No 4511392 Registered in England

The Circle Works is an educational and mental health charity established in east London in 1985.

It is a focus, resource, and meeting point for people who do challenging work in the community, offering them hospitality, encouragement, connection with others of like mind, and, most importantly, space to think.

This reflective space takes various forms: individual work consultations, group supervision, quiet days, strategic planning meetings, arts-based projects, workshops, and events that bring people together round a theme.

At the heart of all our work is a resolute commitment to the primary importance of human relationship.

*'To discover how to be human now
Is the reason we follow this Star.'*

What People Say

At The Circle Works, I can hear my own thoughts.
A community development worker

The Circle Works creates space for me to say what I need to say. There are no set dialogues, prompts or preconceived notions of how 'talking' is supposed to go. I take ownership. I feel listened to, supported and able to think more clearly about my work.

The co-ordinator of a nationwide project

Through talking, silence, and simply sharing my experiences, I am able to reflect upon some of the more difficult and challenging aspects of hospital ministry. This time enables me to 'recharge the batteries' on a regular basis, and also to simply 'be', with no expectations or conditions; a safe, protected space so valuable for me; space ultimately for healing and growth.

A hospital chaplain

The Circle Works stands for a part of life that is not well recognised in organisations. I am proud to be involved.

A teacher

Really good biscuits.

The Friends' Scheme

The Circle Works' Friends' Scheme gives you a way to support our work by making regular donations - monthly, quarterly or annually.

Benefits for The Circle Works

This is a healthy way for The Circle Works to raise money, because it strengthens community through participation, makes financial planning easier, and eliminates reliance on grants.

That means we can be as flexible, independently minded and responsive as a small charity should be.

Benefits for Donors

Friends of The Circle Works are members of a diverse community with an extensive range of useful and interesting connections.

Being a Friend gives you the satisfaction of knowing that you are supporting work that really makes a difference.

Friends are often given preferential rates at events.

You can be sure that none of your money will be wasted: we put all our resources to the fullest possible use, there are no salaries to pay, financial management is cautious and efficient, and we recycle and repair everything we can.

The Circle Works

In a tradition found in many cultures and at many points in time, The Circle Works opens up a space for a meeting of mind, heart and spirit, individually and collectively. The space within is flexible enough to hold all our experience of work: our enthusiasm and disappointment, our delight, pain, disorientation, humour, anger and inspiration.'
